Press Advisory

The Prince George's County Police Department Partners with Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. to Empower Male Youth

LANDOVER MARYLAND – The Prince George's County Police Department has partnered with Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., to mentor and train teenage males in life skills. The EMBODI program (Empowering Males to Build Opportunities for Developing Independence) is designed to reach young males between the ages of 11 and 18.

Chief Roberto L. Hylton has stated that his community policing strategy “includes a focused approach to protecting our youth by providing structured alternatives to encourage responsible behavior. I am committed to strengthening and empowering our male youth to overcome the challenges that may block their ability to develop into highly responsible members of the community. We are pleased to partner with Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., to provide training and awareness on the importance of education, social responsibility and cultural diversity,” said Chief Hylton.

EMBODI, a six month program, is free of charge to Prince George's County male youth, and will meet every 4th Saturday.

Parents and guardians are encouraged to register their male youth with the EMBODI program by calling Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., 301-736-3250 or by emailing EMBODI@pgcadst.org. You may also register at the EMBODI seminar on January 18, 2009.

Members of the media and parents/guardians are encouraged to attend the seminar.
